The licence allows you to copy for immediate use:

- Up to 5% or one chapter (whichever is the greater) of a book, published in the countries listed below except in the case of a short story or poem which can be copied in its entirety provided it does not exceed ten pages in length
- The whole or part of one article from a journal or periodical issue published in the countries listed below.

Books, journals and periodicals published in the following countries are covered by the licence: Ireland, the U.K., Austria, Australia, Canada, France, Germany, Greece, Iceland, Malta, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, South Africa, Spain, Switzerland and the US; a list of the US publishers covered by the licence is published from time to time by ICLA.

The licence does not cover the following categories of works published in Ireland:

- printed music (including the words)
- workbooks, workcards or assignment sheets
- separate maps or charts
- privately prepared teaching material (such as correspondence courses)
- industrial journals

The licence does not cover the excluded works listed below by Irish publishers:

- Examination papers published by the Educational Company of Ireland [Junior and Leaving Certificate]
- National Dairy Council - all publications
- The North Western Health Board - all publications
- The Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland – all publications
- Technical Graphics by Denis O'Connor, published by the Educational Company of Ireland
- Tara Publishing Limited – all publications
- The Irish Farmer's Handbook
- Church of Ireland Board of Education – all except Follow Me programme
- McKeon Murray (MKM) Business Training Services – all publications

In respect of works published in the UK, the licence does not cover the excluded categories and excluded works detailed on the list attached hereto.

The licence overrides the "all rights reserved" prohibition to copy notice in the front of all copyright material, but permission to copy excluded items or quantities in excess of the stated limits should be sought from the individual publisher on each occasion.
